

Dear Jonathan

Advisory Days & Workshop

We have plenty of space for Observers at both Advisory Days we have coming up, Norwich 15th March and Foxton 18th April, tickets can be booked online. We also have places left to attend the Distinctions Workshop in Norwich on 15th March. To view any Advisory or event in the region go directly to our home page <https://rps.org/ea/home>

Website

Our first statistics have been released for the website and East Anglia top the table for pages viewed. The address above takes you to our home page where you can then access our News, Events and Advisory information. If you would like to have your work featured, then please do contact me.

Exhibition

Our Members Exhibition opened on 21st January and runs to 22nd February at The Apex in Bury St Edmunds. We have received some very positive feedback. Please do visit. If you cannot make the dates, then it will be hung again in Wingfield Barns from Saturday 4th to Monday 13th April 2020. Entry is free.

Events

We have a number of events running so please do check out the website. A further Open University event with DIG East and a Tower Tour of Peterborough Cathedral with Archaeology & Heritage are new this week. We still have places available for the Naze field trip which will be held on 29th March. Do check other parts of the RPS for events too, for example, The Visual Art Group have their Annual Exhibition coming up in March at the Patching Arts Centre, Calverton, Nottingham, NG14 6NU – March 21st to 4th May. We are hoping the VAG exhibition can come to our region next year. We have a very active region but we are always looking for more suggestions for events, please do contact me with your suggestions and if you can help organise then even better.

Annual General Meeting

The AGM will take place at Foxton on Saturday 18th April at 10am. Details will be posted by 29th February on the Events page. Please book if you are attending.

Regards
